Introducing the handled Moscow Mule Shot Cup from World Tableware! At just 2 ounces, it is the perfect shot cup to toast fun and good times!

The Moscow Mule was “invented” in the early 1940’s by a liquor distributor trying to move cases of vodka. It was a popular drink with the Hollywood crowd. It has recently enjoyed resurgence, mostly at upscale establishments that have acquired the mugs and cups for proper presentation.

Built out on a stainless steel foundation and then coated in copper, the Moscow Mule collection is a perfect opportunity to present the traditional Moscow Mule beverage or any specialty cocktail.
